11. Eligibility for Competition – Horse:

- a. All horses need to be Equestrian Australia registered to enter.
- b. Horses may only enter one class at this event.

12. Qualifications - Diamond Class (this includes the Junior section):

- 12.1 For a Horse and Rider to start in the Diamond Class, they must have a minimum of 3 (in total) qualifications that meet the following parameters:

- a. MER in official CCN1* (previously EvA105) or PC105 at a State Championship Pony Club Competition; or
- b. 1.10m Show Jumping rounds at a registered Equestrian Australian Event with a result of ≤ 12 jumping penalties; or
- c. Completion of an EA Eventing Grand Prix at 1.05m (this includes EITP) with no more than 16 jumping faults.

For clarity you can mix the qualifications around but you need 3 in total within the qualification period.

- 12.2 If a rider has achieved one qualifying result (as set out in paragraph 12.1 above), that rider may compete in the Diamond class on any horse that is qualified to compete in the Diamond class.
- 12.3 Diamond class qualifications must be completed between 1 November 2023 and 30 September 2025.
- 12.4 The following horses and/or riders are not permitted to enter the Diamond Class:
 - a. Horse and Rider combinations who have completed one (1) qualifying result at CCI3*/CCN3* (long or short) (no matter how many jump penalties incurred) at a registered Equestrian Australian Event during the qualifying period. For clarity this also includes any CCN 2.5* competitions.
 - b. Horse and rider combinations who have completed two (2) x 1.30m Show Jumping rounds or higher (no matter how many jump penalties incurred) at a registered Equestrian Australian Event, during the qualifying period.
 - c. Any horses that have completed a CCI5* (formally CCI4*) eventing competition in the last 6 years (regardless of who is riding the horse).

1. However, for riders 18 years and under (at the date of the event) they may ride a horse that has competed in a CCI5* class, provided it has not competed in CCI5 Star since 1 November 2021.

12.5 If a horse and rider complete the events set out in paragraphs 12.4(a) or 12.4(b) above, after 30 September 2025 and prior to the commencement of the event, they will automatically be removed from the Diamond Class. If there is space in the Grand Prix the combination may be moved up into this class but will be responsible for paying the additional $100 in entry fee. This will only be done in consultation with the rider.

12.6 Qualification information must be included in your entry otherwise your entry is not considered valid.

13. Qualifications - Grand Prix class

13.1 For a Horse and Rider to start in the Grand Prix class, they must have a minimum of:

- a. One (1) qualifying result in CCN2*/CCI2 (long or short)* or higher. They may incur 20 cross country jumping faults; OR
- b. Two (2) x 1.15m Show Jumping rounds or higher at a registered Equestrian Australian Event with a result of ≤ 16 jumping penalties; OR
- c. One (1) completion of an EA Eventing Grand Prix at 1.15m with no more than 20 jumping faults.

13.2 If a rider has achieved one qualifying result (as set out in the paragraph above), that rider may compete in the Grand Prix class on any horse that is qualified to compete in the Grand Prix class.

13.3 Grand Prix qualifications must be completed between 1 November 2023 and 30 September 2025.

13.4 For clarity, horses that were qualified for the 2023 Grand Prix class are qualified for the 2025 Grand Prix class.

13.5 Qualification information must be included in your entry.

13.6 The Organising Committee may, in its absolute discretion, allow any horse and rider combination to compete in the Grand Prix if the selection panel of 3 judges (referred to in Paragraph 2(d) of the Conditions of Entry) resolves that the combination is suitable to compete in the Grand Prix Class.

14. Promotional Riders, these are riders who are hired by the event to promote the event and they are able to ride any horse that has ever been qualified to compete. The date range for qualification does not apply to horses ridden by promotional riders.

15. Equestrian Australia Registration Documents of Riders and horses' proof of age must be available on the day of competition.
16. Catering: Food and refreshments will be available for purchase on the day from a variety of sources. Please refer to www.equestrianinthepark.com.au for full details and riders are required to cover these costs themselves.
17. Venue Entry: As per entry details above, included in the Competitor's entry fee are two (2) tickets to the Rider's Lounge. No other access will be provided as part of entry. It is the rider's responsibility to ensure they purchase enough tickets for owners, family and friends.
18. Yards: There will not be any yards available at this event, all riders will be required to bring their own and ensure the materials used are compliant with EA Rules.

22. Riders or owners who have an existing debt with Equestrian Western Australia or any of its affiliated clubs may not be permitted to enter a horse or compete in this event. Please ensure all outstanding debts are cleared before entering. If you have previously nominated to complete a helper duty but not completed it you will not be given preference on reserve lists or draws.
23. Protests and Appeals: These must be in writing and accompanied by a fee of $100 within 10 minutes of the final scores being updated.
24. Warm up etiquette: There is no lungeing in the warm up arena. If you wish to lunge your horse you must do so away from the main arena so as not to interfere with other competitors.
25. Officials, Ground Staff and Volunteers: These people are essential in the running of our competitions and events. Please treat them with respect. Poor sportsmanship will not be tolerated. Verbal or physical bullying behaviour will be reported to the CEO of EWA and disciplinary action will be taken where appropriate.
26. Duty of care: It is your responsibility to promptly report unsafe and or hazardous situations to the Event Organiser.

27. Stallion Code of Conduct: see the EA guidelines
28. Cleanliness: ALL riders, supporters and owners will be required to ensure they leave these grounds as they found them. This is vitally important for the success of this event.
29. Manure: All horse manure will be required to be removed before leaving the grounds. Please ensure you bring suitable equipment to do this.
30. No Dogs Allowed.
31. Parking: Floats Recommended. Due to limited space, Goosenecks and Trucks will ONLY be permitted entry to the event if they are carrying two or more horses.
- Competitors will be required to pay a $100 bond for a Parking Permit which will provide access to the car park. When ready to leave your site will be inspected by our parking attendant who will sign your Parking Permit stating that the site is in a suitable condition and you can exchange your parking permit for a refund of your bond at the nominated vendor site. Sand (inc. wheelbarrow and shovel) will be provided to assist with top dressing the car parking sites, should any divots / holes etc. need filling. NO REFUNDS OF PARKING BONDS WILL BE GIVEN AFTER THE EVENT, YOU MUST HAVE YOUR SITE INSPECTED ON THE DAY.
32. The Event Organisers reserve the right to alter or amend the program and competitions offered. Event Organisers reserve the right to amend the conditions of entry, as well as refuse, reject and / or interchange entries. Entrants who do not adhere to the EWA Code of Conduct will find entries will not be accepted or they will be eliminated. In the event that there are low entries in any class the Organising Committee reserves the right to amalgamate or amend classes where necessary.
33. Any local riders that are placed in the top three may be required to attend a promotion event at their own cost following the event.

Any rider entering this event accepts these conditions.
